

I strongly support localism in broadcast media. A media with diverse viewpoints and strong local influence is critically important to the health of our democracy. Please support rules that decrease large corporate control of our media. History shows that only by enforcing that the *majority* of stations be locally owned can we ensure local content, dissenting viewpoints, and controversial topics will be heard.